No doubt the champagne flowed freely election night for the Republican party faithful, although for the life of me, I can't understand why. For a nation in turmoil and demanding change, the same Congress is being returned to Washington, DC! The same Congress that has been controlled by Republicans for the past ten years. America is sending back the same Senate (plus a few new faces) that has refused to remove one single corrupt federal judge or member of the U. S. Supreme Court. The same Senate that passed unconstitutional treaties like NAFTA & GATT without reading them that has destroyed millions of jobs since passage of both treaties. The same Senate that allowed Mr. Bush to invade Iraq without a formal declaration of war.

With the exception of a few seats which opened up for various reasons, the same House of Representatives will be returned to wreak even more destruction upon this country. The same individuals who voted to pass the insidious "Patriot Act" without even reading it. The same incumbents who have out spent any other House before them like drunken sailors in a bar with promises of more spending yet to come on unconstitutional programs and give-a-ways. The same House that allowed Mr. Bush to invade Iraq without a formal declaration of war. America is returning the same Congress to power that has destroyed our manufacturing, industrial and agricultural sectors.

The same Congress that has refused to lock down America's borders and will allow the wholesale invasion by illegals to continue. The same Congress that has refused to get rid of NAFTA and GATT which will continue destroying American jobs and reducing the middle class to poverty. The same Congress that continues to bald face lie to the American people about the voluntary nature of the income tax, withholding and social security. The same Congress that refuses to abolish the unconstitutional Federal Department of Education - a key tool to dumb down America for a one world government. The same Congress that will continue to promise better, affordable health care when they are the very body that is primarily responsible for destroying the best health care system in the world.

The same Congress that kow-tows to foreign interests, raping the Americans people for hundreds of billions of dollars in unconstitutional foreign "aid." The same Congress that refuses to nullify America's participation in the Communist controlled UN. Instead, the prophetic words of Congressman James Utt on January 15, 1962 have come to pass: "You can expect to see a one world government, Communist controlled, under the United Nations. You will see the United Nations run up astronomical debts which we, under the terms of the treaty, are bound to pay."

The same Congress will return to Washington that refuses to abolish the privately owned Federal Reserve, thereby ensuring that we the people will continue to have the fruits of our labor stolen from us by the money cartel, further reducing us to poverty:

"This act establishes the most gigantic trust on earth. When the President signs this Act, the invisible government by the Money Powers, proven to exist by the Money Trust Investigation, will be legalized. The new law will created inflation whenever the trusts want inflation. From now on, depressions will be scientifically created." Charles A. Lindbergh, Sr., at the time of the passage of the Federal Reserve Act of 1913

"Some people think the Federal Reserve Banks are U.S. government institutions. They are not government institutions. They are private credit monopolies which prey upon the people of the U.S. for the benefit of themselves and their foreign and domestic swindlers, rich and predatory money lenders." Congressman Louis T. McFadden, Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee

Don't expect any remedy on illegal immigration, massive taxation, foreign aid, eliminating unconstitutional cabinets and out of control spending as a result of voting all the incumbents back in office. It hasn't happened since the Republicans have controlled Congress for the past ten years and Mr. Bush has already demonstrated his readiness to back up Congress by signing unconstitutional legislation into law.

America is returning the same Congress that hasn't held your best interests at heart for decades, yet they were once again rewarded for their lying and massive efforts to destroy your rights by passing thousands of new, unnecessary and unconstitutional laws cementing a police state and giving away our sovereignty.

The same Congress that will rob you to pay for programs for illegal aliens, and in fact, want to give illegals a free pass, further denigrating the meaning of citizenship and allowing criminals, rapists and terrorists to remain illegally in our country has been rewarded. The same members of Congress (both parties) are being returned to seats of power who promote the murder of unborn babies and promote the perverted culture of death known as "gay orientation."

whip the citizenry into a patriotic fervor, for patriotism is indeed a double-edged sword. It both emboldens the blood, just as it narrows the mind. And when the drums of war have reached a fever pitch and the blood boils with hate and the mind has closed, the leader will have no need in seizing the rights of the citizenry. Rather, the citizenry, infused with fear and blinded by patriotism, will offer up all of their rights unto the leader and gladly so. How do I know? For this is what I have done. And I am Caesar."

As for the presidency, the American people got played again. For eleven years I have studied vote fraud, the machines, what a mess registrations are and preaching how to fix the problem the right way for a tenth of the money already being spent to promote election fraud. For months on end, we heard hold your nose and vote for Bush because Kerry becoming president is unthinkable (true), the vote is going to be close - every vote counts, so vote for Bush. Don't waste your vote on the Constitution Party's candidate, Michael Peroutka. No way could we have a replay of 2000, every vote would count because the race was going to be so tight! The hype reached fever pitch and we saw Americans attacking each other in the most vile fashion. I was called a traitor because I had no intention of voting for Bush. You see, I know how the game is played and America got played, again. The finally "tally" will probably show somewhere in the neighborhood of a three million vote margin for Bush with the big battlefield being Ohio instead of Florida. Masterful!

Bush is a war president. He has said so himself. Kerry allegedly wasn't. The power brokers behind the scenes made sure the Democrats would be represented by supposedly an exact opposite (a fellow Skull and Bonesman) of the incumbent president. This would not only divide the nation, it would keep Americans scrapping and fighting while the world masters continued their relentless march behind the scenes towards a totalitarian nightmare for America.

Remember Y2K? In 1998 one man started floating the doomsday scenario regarding computers and the century date change. By New Year's eve 1999, we saw people who had sold their homes and moved to the hills, others had garages full of canned tuna and old people begging Congress to spend tens of millions of dollars on computers to make sure they would get their government checks on the first of the month. In the end, Y2K was a non-event, just like Tuesday's election.

The day after the elections brought a concession by Kerry and massive condemnation of polling and exit polling by political pundits, think tanks and politicians themselves. How could "they" have been so far off? Why, everyone just knew according to polls that it was going to be neck and neck! The people were really whipped into a frenzy by this, just like Y2K. In the end, Kerry bowed out with a whimper. Classic Sun-tzu and the herding technique.

While I expected trouble at polling places (and they have materialized all over the country, which I'm sure will be covered in the months to come by people investigating our corrupted election system), in my heart I knew Bush would be returned to continue the agenda of his handlers. After all, the vote totals can be supplemented to ensure a candidate has enough votes to "win." People by the millions held their nose and voted for Bush because the media, radio and TV pundits told them this election was going to be razor close.

Conservatives can go back to sleep believing Mr. Bush will protect them from terrorists while he plans to invade Iran. Let there be no question about this folks, Iran is next on Bush's list. Our military is depleted, worn out, poorly equipped. The National Guard can't get enough sign ups so they're now offering free fishing licenses, huge bonuses and pink T-shirts for the girls. It seems Americans are tired of signing up to be used as cannon fodder in furtherance of American imperialism. Despite an eleventh hour move by Congress to kill a draft (another bill for votes), when there isn't enough troops for this next 'war for peace,' where do you think the "volunteers" will come from?

Don't expect Mr. Bush to appoint any pro-life Supreme Court Justices. Voters keen on this issue should have listened to what Bush said on October 14, 2004 in an interview with Bob Schieffer: that he had no litmus test for the court regarding abortion. When asked in 2000, Bush said he didn't believe the country was ready to overturn Roe v Wade and his wife, Laura, said she didn't want to see Roe v Wade overturned.

Kerry supporters shouldn't be too disappointed about Kerry not being able to "create millions of new jobs." The president can't create jobs (even though Bush has promised millions of them) except through increasing the size of government. But, don't worry. The same Congress is going back to spend you and your children into further massive, unpayable debt despite the fact that there is no money in the public treasury. Conservatives in this country simply refuse to believe their 'Grand Old Party' is no longer the party of smaller government or constitutional principles. It's far easier to stay in a comfort zone than face ugly realities.

It's not my place to blame or criticize anyone for the way they voted on election day, holding their nose or not. We must all live with our decisions and now America will have to live with the "lesser of two evils" as our president and commander in chief. I voted against every incumbent from county to Congress. I refuse to reward incompetence, liars and those who are working to destroy this Republic. As Ezra Taft Benson said in his amazingly prophetic work, An Enemy Hath Done This, America will be destroyed from within because of apathy and the refusal by the American people to hold their elected public servants accountable. We are well on our way.

Congratulations, America. You just re-hired the same body of people who haven't done the job for a decade. Now you expect something different from the same people? I hope the champagne was the good stuff.
