9-11 FOUR YEARS LATER

"We find few historians who have been diligent enough in their search for truth; it is their common method to take on trust what they help distribute to the public; by which means a falsehood once received from a famed writer becomes traditional to posterity." --John Dryden, English Poet, 1631-1700

It has now been four years since America woke up to horror on an unprecedented scale.

Despite tens of millions of dollars spent hunting down terrorists, not one single individual has been prosecuted for 9/11.

Despite over $400 billion dollars and at a cost of one billion dollars per day unconstitutionally spent in Iraq, not one terrorist has been brought to trial.

Let me repeat myself: The President of these united States of America, George Bush, Jr., just like the cheap sex tramp who occupied the White House before him (Billy Clinton), looked right into the camera and lied to the American people.

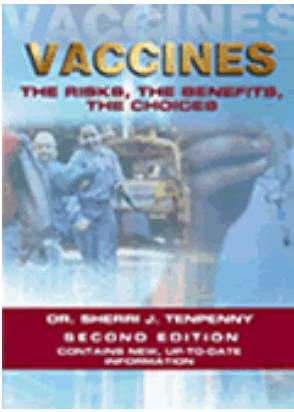

The only thing 9/11 has given us is the final stages of a complete police state: the "Patriot" Act, Homeland Security, airline gate keepers who were allowed to feel women up for cheap thrills until enough of them said no, cameras on every street corner and a Congress that is so disconnected with the American people, it borders on criminal the way they have continued to destroy our God given rights.

It is very difficult to write about Bush's unconstitutional invasion of Iraq while our military are in harm's way, but we the people must open our eyes to painful truths. We must open them, for to remain blind to the truth, is to dig the grave of this nation.

I believe Bob Chapman of the International Forecaster recently summed up the situation (8.27.05), although it isn't a pleasant read:

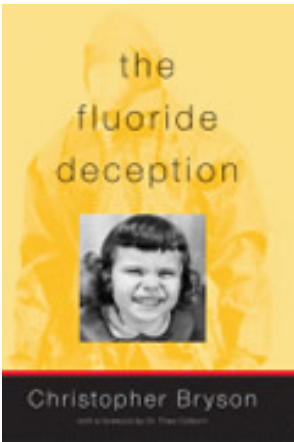

"The talk in Washington is that Iran needs to be invaded to keep it from developing nuclear weapons when the real reasons are similar to those in Iraq. Take over the oil, set up another strategic position in the Middle East, placate Israel and stop the new Iranian commodity exchange from trading oil in euros, which will destroy the dollar as the world's reserve currency. The nuking of Iran is really all about economics and resources. It is about petro-dollar recycling. It has nothing to do with WMD, a nuclear program or fighting international terrorism.

"This is part of the same operation planned for Iraq in the late 1980s and early 1990s; the installation of pro-US governments and military bases before the onset of peak oil. In Iraq to stop selling oil in euros and in Iran to make sure their commodity exchange never opens. All this has to be consolidated by the onslaught of peak oil. Russia is contemplating selling oil in euros. Will the neocons stretched as they are militarily, dare to attack Russia? Very few people realize that in September 2000 Saddam Hussein switched from dollars to euros for oil payment. The US invaded and in June 2003 Iraq switched back to selling oil in dollars. There was no mention of this in the media, as usual.

"Iran's opening of a Bourse for oil in euros is far more serious a matter than just selling oil in euros. It is now expected that trading will commence in March 2006 in conjunction with the NY, NYMEX and London's IPE in regard to oil trades. The NYMEX and the IPE are controlled by international oil companies and by elitists. This exchange allows the euro to gain a firm foothold in the international oil trade. This is seen by US elitists as an encroachment on dollar supremacy and with the weakness of the dollar over the last few years and its negative future due to the wars and current account deficit and debt, trading oil in euros by Iran would soon end the dollar's vaunted position as the world's reserve currency.

"As we write working drafts are being circulated within the administration that layout the neocon invasion and occupation strategy. By using drafts they evade congressional subpoenas and the Freedom of Information Act keeping their intentions away from Congress and the people. Not that Congress gives a hoot – 95% of them are bought and paid for. The new scenario for Iran is the same as it was for Iraq, which has been a failure. Half of the military thinks the neocons are insane, the other half unfortunately go along with this foolish program. Another reason for the Iran program again is it is to be used as a cover for the failing financial system. The neocons know the viability of the US economy is nearing an end. If you look at history you can see the war tactic is used over and over as a cover for economic and financial dislocation.

"Worse yet, along with an Iran invasion comes another 9/11 or 7/7 type event to justify the invasion. We are told our VP Dick Cheney wants the Pentagon prepared to launch a nuclear attack on Iran even if the Iranian government has had nothing to do with terrorism or an attack. STRATCOM – Northern Command is preparing along with FEMA to implement martial law in the US if the people rise up to stop the neocon plans. Our government already has 450 sites in Iran that they intend to bomb into the Stone Age. Half the military brass is appalled at what the neocons intend to do. They know it will certainly lead to WWII and nuclear war. This is an unprovoked nuclear attack. Now you can fully understand why I call these people lunatics.

"Of course, few of these staff officers will risk damaging their careers by speaking out about such heinous actions. There are grave moral implications but for the most part that historically has never bothered military types. There has been absolutely no effort at diplomacy by the neocons. They can only make their plan work by invasion and occupation. The neocons see no other option. In opposition to such a plan, just two weeks ago the National Intelligence Estimate said, "Iran is about a decade away from manufacturing the key ingredient for a nuclear weapon." That leaves the glaring question, why would our VP advocate a nuclear attack against Iran even if Iran has done nothing? You, of course, already know. We have outlined it in this article. There is a major elitist effort to stop economic inevitability and stop the demise of US economic supremacy. The dollar is failing and that means the titans that control America and the American people are facing a whole new way of life. They are going to have to face their enormous un-payable debt, which will bankrupt the country. They are trying to avoid this unpalatable situation by imposing global domination at any cost.

"Once Iran is allowed to set a new crude oil market with the euro it will only be a matter of time before the dollar takes a secondary position. That is only natural because as we pointed out before the EU imports as much oil from the Middle East as the US does and the EU supplies 45% of Middle East imports. What will the Fed do when billions of dollars start streaming into the US? The real bottom line is that the Fed will no longer be able to flood the world with dollar assets, namely US Treasury, bills, notes and bonds. That will result in a further fall in the value of the dollar, a precipitous fall. That is why almost all your assets should be in gold related asset; as the dollar falls versus gold – as gold rises – it will rise against all other currencies and remain the only real money."

This past week political gas bags have been dissecting Bush's low numbers in the polls as if it is somehow important that they have dropped since Katrina. George Bush, Jr., is a lame duck president. He won't be running for reelection for anything. Do people really think he loses a minute of sleep over poll numbers? He is there to lock down the final pieces of a one world government whether those in denial wish to believe it or not. There will be no impeachment of Bush. Articles of impeachment must come from the House which is Republican controlled. Besides, the alternative is Dick Cheney, a major player on 9/11 and he wasn't playing for the good guys.

Henry David Thoreau said, "Rather than love, than money, than fame, give me truth." We have not been given the truth about 9/11. I have read just about every book and web site about 9/11 and seen every video except a new one titled Loose Change. In my humble opinion the only two books every American should read about 9/11 are Crossing the Rubicon by Michael Ruppert and The Terror Timeline by Paul Thompson. I also strongly recommend you get the DVD of the McKinney briefing on 9/11 which includes family members of those who died on that day. I watched this event on C-SPAN and, quite frankly, it was shocking and beyond disturbing. The families of those murdered have done the most extraordinary and exhaustive investigations into 9/11. What they have found is ugly, but it is the truth and all Americans should want the truth over comfortable lies.

Rumors, disinformation and arm chair journalists

There are so many web sites covering 9/11, it takes literally hundreds of hours of reading to sift through the rumors, disinformation and garbage written by individuals who fancy themselves as journalists, yet do nothing more than repeat lies or half truths. There are also excellent web sites with well researched material and documentation on what happened on 9/11. Two of the most persistent rumors which many claim is the absolute, iron clad truth is that Flight 93 (crime scene three) was shot down by our military and Flight 93 never crashed just outside Shanksville, Pennsylvania.

One web site I found during my research carries the cruel and insulting headline No 'Lets Roll' - Hunt the Boeing in Shansville, PA, and see if you can spot it! as if this were some sort of game. Of course, the author of this statement is referring to the final words of Todd Beamer who died on Flight 93. His lovely and gracious wife, Lisa, was five months pregnant on 9/11 with two toddlers at home; David, 3, and Andrew, 18 months. There is no question Lisa loved her husband dearly and his last words are precious to her. For anyone to use them in such a cheap and tawdry fashion, regardless of what you think about Flight 93, is disgusting and unprofessional. While there has been excellent investigative work on all three crimes scenes from that day - especially by the 9/11 families, too much of what's on the Internet is sensational trash.

Because I could not be sure in my own mind about Flight 93 and all the theories, I went to Shanksville, Pennsylvania to interview those who saw Flight 93 crash and what the local citizenry from Somerset and the entire surrounding area had to say about that day. These interviews took place from July 31 - August 2, 2005. My three part series (plus photos) on my recent fact finding trip can be found here.

The families of 9/11 are not going to stop until they get the whole truth about what happened four years ago and when they do, Bush, Cheney, Rudy Guiliani and others are going to have a lot to answer for to the families and the American people.
